August 28th-31st

2nd ESES Postgraduate Camp in Endocrine Surgery

Dear Colleagues

It is our pleasure to announce the 2nd ESES Postgraduate Camp in Endocrine Surgery under the auspices of the ESES educational committee. The course is aimed at young surgeons who want to specialize in Endocrine Surgery and intent to participate at the DES exam in this speciality. After the successful camp in 2024 we decided not to change the location of the camp. We will go back to the hut on Alp Blättendürren with its spectacular view into the Appenzell foothills.

Number of participants:

The aim is to have a very personal intensive course with a maximum of 11 participants and 4 tutors.

Course materials:

Recommended: 'Endocrine Surgery Comprehensive Board Exam Guide' (ISBN 978-3-030-84736-4). Additional documents will be provided by the tutors in the according to their chosen contents and topics.

Amenities:

Be prepared to 4 days in a "rustic" environment (electricity limited to 6V, enough for light and charging cell phones, only cold running water, sleeping in sleeping bags, trolley suitcases make no sense, backpacks necessary)

Tutors:

Andrea Goldmann, Özer Makay, Ioannis Koudelidakis, Thomas Clerici

Costs:

750.- EUROS (includes everything: transport to the hut and back to the airport in Zurich, food, drinks, accommodation, social event)

Registration:

Please contact Thomas Clerici (clethogm@gmail.com). He will provide you with an application form.

Definitive list of participants:

The definitive list of participants will be announced to all applicants by the end of April
We are very much looking forward to your application!
